OVERVIEW

Perched high on the hill one mile from 'the little white town' of Bideford, and within five miles of the rugged beauty of the North Devon coast, Riverview Hall is a Grade II listed Georgian manor. Completely refurbished in 2012/13, the house combines original elegance with modern comfort, boasting 11 beautifully appointed en suite bedrooms and a plethora of gorgeous reception rooms, including a parquet-floored dining room and country kitchen. Sitting in its own oasis of lawns and parkland, Riverview Hall is surrounded by fields leading down to the Torridge Estuary, with breathtaking views over the river, rolling Devon hills and to Exmoor and Dartmoor beyond.

A note from the owners:

"Riverview Hall is a large, yet extremely friendly, manor house ideal for groups of friends, families or couples looking for a very personal wedding venue. With beautifully appointed en-suite rooms and oodles of downstairs reception and dining rooms, it is ideal for corporate breaks or celebrations, for birthday parties or anniversaries. If you're looking for the 'wow' factor and understated elegance, the house combines modern comfort with old-fashioned decadence. We look forward to giving you the warmest welcome."

A recent testimony:

Our wedding was the most perfect weekend ☑ thank you so much for allowing us to use Riverview Hall. We loved that we could celebrate all weekend with the people closest to us; it felt so much like being at home from the moment we arrived. It was the diversity of the house that we fell in love with on our first visit ☑ having the different rooms gave us the flexibility to cater for everyone's needs in more ways than we expected ☑ from the peaceful and relaxing lounges to the social hub of the kitchen. We were even able to create a casino room which was a huge hit with everyone.

The stair case provided an amazing entrance to the wedding ceremony and I felt like a princess floating down the stairs. Rose did an amazing job with flowers for the banister and the uplighters from Flybase completely transformed the hallway. Our DJ and bar company had never been to the venue before and all commented on the
